

1st 「Love Across Boundaries」 Photo Contest: on Humanity

By Taiwan Red Cross

August 19 is World Humanitarian Day. It marks the day in 2003 when the lives of 22 UN aid workers were lost to a terrorist attack in Baghdad and is also an opportunity to raise awareness of the importance of humanitarian work around the globe. Today, there are increasingly more natural disasters and armed conflicts between nations. Humanitarian aid is facing a more difficult challenge. We cannot help wondering, “can we really make it a better world on our own?” Don’t think so little of yourself. Taking a picture that strikes a chord can become an inspiring and moving force for change!

Humanity is associated with strengths such as love and kindness, focused on tending to and befriending others. It transcends beyond borders. Through humanity, the life, health and dignity of mankind are therefore preserved. In order to pay tribute to the spirit of humanity, discover more stories of love and caring, and encourage the practice of humanity, Taiwan Red Cross has decided to hold the first annual photo contest on humanity. Winning photographs will be showcased at the Photo Exhibition on Humanity taking place next spring.
